Human-Like Eyes - Designeraugen®

From size 12 mm to size 34 mm, in 9 different colours: dark blue, blue, light blue, green blue, grey green, grey, grey blue, black blue and hazel. Similar to prothesis eyes for humans the drawings are made with different type colour glass staffs. These are made before the actual process of eyemaking. This products the appearance of an iris-rim-muscle(closes and opens the human pupil depending on light or darkness) making the iris seen very natural.

Art: From size 12 mm to size 24 mm, in 17 different colours. With black pupil: violet, white, pale pink, red, pink, amber. With white pupil: ice-blue, white, pale pink, red, pink, amber, lightbrown, beige, lightgreen, lightgrey, grey-green. These eyes are the traditional kind of glass eyes. They are typically stripe-drawn. These are the crazy colours.

Paperweight Eyes From size 6 mm to size 34 mm, in 6 different colours: darkblue, grey, lightblue, green, turquoise and brown. They are needed for antique reproductions. These eyes are mainly used for French dolls. They have intense volume (deep brilliance) and a bit larger iris.

Iris-Rim Eyes From size 12 mm to size 34 mm, in 7 different colours: blue, darkblue, grey green, grey, beige, turquoise and topaz.

This eyes are typically stripe-drawn like Doll Eyes plus they have a pupil-rim. The pupil-rim is the muscle which closes and opens the human pupil in response to light or dark. This addition produces a much more natural appearance.

Dark-Rim Eyes From size 12 mm to size 34 mm, in 2 different colours: blue and green.

They looks like Doll Eyes with a dark rim around the iris. It makes a powerful outfit.

Doll Eyes 6 mm and 8 mm in 3 different colours: blue, brown and grey. From size 10 mm to size 34 mm, in 15 different colours: dark blue, blue, turquoise, grey, dark green, grey green, beige, topas, light brown, brown, red-brown, dark brown, black-brown, lightgrey and green. These eyes are the traditional kind of glass eyes. They are typically stripe-drawn. They are made correctly for antique and modern dolls.

Googly Eyes : From size 12 mm to size 24 mm, in 3 different colours: dark blue, blue and brown. These eyes are the traditional kind of glass eyes. But they have a very large Iris(60 - 65%) of diameter. Mostly used for Gogglys.

Eyes on Wire From size 2 mm to size 9 mm, in 12 different colours: blue, lightblue, turquoise, brown, lightbrown, grey, green, lightgreen, beige, topaz, brown-white and black-brown.

Teddybear Eyes From size 2 mm to size 20 mm in black. From size 6 mm to size 16 mm in black-mat. From size 6 mm to size 18 mm in 8 different colours: light brown, brown, blue, green, grey, violet, turquoise and transparent. Making the eyes before a flame of 1100 °C is skilled handwork that produces brilliance and heat, scratch and remover resistance. You can purchase eyes on wire or on noose.

The iris of all eyes for dolls are at normally between 50% to 55% of the diameter.

Paperweight Eyes have a bit larger iris(55% to 60%).
